Family sessions are so much fun! For larger families with 4 or more children, an hour session is required. I get the common question of “What do we wear?” I recommend neutral color pallets (grey, navy, army green, beiges, etc.) Bright colors photograph nicely too but not if everyone is wearing a bright color, so definitely try to mix it up. 45 minute session yields around 30-40 digital images. 1 hour session yields around 40-50 digital images.
Senior- $240 or $360
Boys- 1 hour session ($240) Girls- 1.5 hour session ($360)

Senior sessions are all about you! We focus on your style, your interests, and your personality. I enjoy capturing images that represent you. I definitely recommend bringing a couple of props (senior ring, athletic wear, graduation cap, balloons, I’m done! sign, etc.) Boys take less time because boys require less poses than girls. Senior sessions yield around 40-60 digital images.
Maternity- $240

Maternity sessions are all about celebrating new life. I do not recommend lots of props. I believe simplicity is beauty. If you would like to bring items, I suggest an ultrasound picture, a onesie, and maybe some blocks with their name. Other than that, it’s all about you, your partner, and your sweet baby. 1 hour session yields around 40-50 digital images.
LifeStyle/Newborn- $360

These sessions represent the love between parents and baby. I do not do in-studio newborn sessions, only lifestyle. These sessions are more candid and not as posed. During the session, the mother may have to feed or calm the baby in between shots. These sessions are between an hour and an hour and a half depending on the baby’s mood. Want to propose to your girlfriend? I can capture the special moment! We will discuss your proposal and create a plan together! A proposal usually requires me to be present 20-30 minutes at the location before it actually occurs. The proposal itself takes about 2-3 minutes, and then we spend about 30 minutes taking pictures of you and your new fiancé. Amount of images delivered depends on the timing/events of that day! 1 hour is pretty standard, but if time needs to be added, it certainly can!
